

Celebration Sunday

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is there shade? Yes! Worship will be held in a tent with overflow tents available, if needed.

My mobility is limited. Will this be a problem? No! Ushers will be at the quarry entrance to assist you. Just let one of them know you need help.

What should I bring?

- Marked lawn chair
- Any drinks other than water
- Marked life jacket, if planning to swim
- Sunscreen

NOTE: Please mark any utensils or containers you would like returned if you bring a dessert. Markers will be available in the first-aid tent, if needed.

What's on the menu? We will serve sandwiches, hot dogs, chips, fruit, and veggies. If you have any dietary restrictions or allergies, we ask that you please pack your own lunch. BONUS! A free lemon shake-up (first one is on us, then $5 after; flavorings are extra).

Will lifeguards be on duty? Yes! Certified lifeguards will be present to ensure safety. Children 16 and younger will be provided a bracelet corresponding to their swimming ability. Please ensure they are worn. Lifejackets are required if your child does not swim well. Some lifejackets will be available to use but are limited. We ask that you remain on the beach while your child is swimming.

What facilities are available?

- Portable restrooms
- Tents for shade
- First-aid tent

NOTE: Please wear swimsuits under your clothes, as a changing area will not be provided. Please remember modesty when choosing swimming attire.

Is there anything for toddlers/infants to do? Yes! We will have a children's area for your littles during worship. A tent will also be set up at the beach area (along with sand toys) for families.

Can I bring a kayak or go fishing?

Yes! Life jackets are required while in a kayak.

Will there be an offering time?

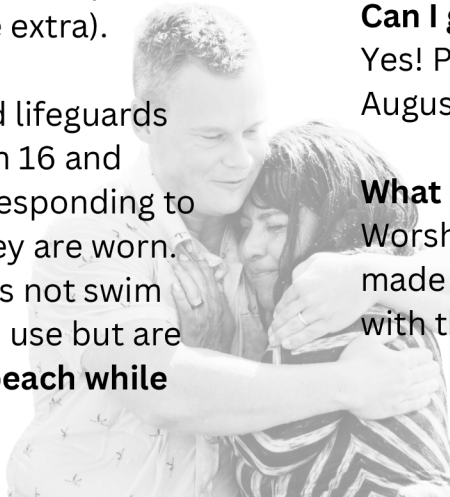

Yes, tithes will be collected during worship. Also, a free-will offering bucket will be provided during the lunch hour. Or you can give online.

Can I get baptized on the 24th?

Yes! Please contact the office or Pastor Ryan before August 21.

What happens in the event of inclement weather?

Worship will be held at the church. A decision will be made by Saturday, August 23 at 10 p.m. and shared with the congregation via Flocknote.

Celebration Sunday

PRAYER REQUESTS

Celebration Sunday is more than just fun and fellowship. It is a different way to experience God through His creation while celebrating those declaring Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. As preparation begins for a successful event, we foremost want it to be a success in God's eyes. Please join us in prayer for God to bless our efforts with His presence.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE FOLLOWING:

- Finalization of details in August
- Worship Team & Pastor Ryan as they plan the service
- Good attendance & involvement of the congregation by signing up to serve and bring desserts
- Sunny but mild weather, especially for the older folks
- Smooth set-up on Saturday and Sunday
- Safety during the event
- Orderly sign-in and meal service
- First-time attenders so they will feel both God's presence and welcomed by the congregation
- Those who may not know the Lord, that He would begin a new work in their hearts

PRAYERS FOR THE WORSHIP SERVICE

- Music to be worshipful
- Giving to be bountiful
- Prayer time to be in accordance with His will
- Pastor Ryan to be a conduit of God's Word as he preaches
- Attentive hearts & ears with no, or few, distractions
- Children to be patient during the service
- People to leave with joyful hearts!
